We need to be satisfied that the society is a bona fide co-operative society. Chapter 4 of our guidance provides more information about how we approach this. We generally consider something to be a bona fide co-operative where it is an autonomous association of persons united voluntarily to meet their common economic, social and cultural needs and aspirations through a jointly owned and democratically controlled enterprise.

3.4 Please describe the members' common economic, social and cultural needs and aspirations.

In answering this question, please make sure it is clear what needs and aspirations members have in common.

Members will be employed by and receive a wage from the co-operative where the members are collectively coming together to build software that benefits the users and does not give up user privacy for profit.

3.5 How will the society's business meet those needs and aspirations?

You have described the society's business answer to question 3.3, and in question 3.4 you have described the common needs and aspirations of members. Please now describe how that business meets those common needs and aspirations.

Members will be employed by the co-operative who and will develop software that enables users to view data rich insights online of digital publishers and individuals and gives them full control of their information

3.6 How will members democratically control the society?

For example, will the members elect a board at an annual general meeting; will all members collectively run the society.

Members are invited to attend general meetings of the co-operative and may vote on a one member one vote basis. All members (employees) of the society with collectively run the society by also be members of the board.

3.7 What will the society do with any surplus or profit?

For instance, will you pay a dividend to members (and if so, on what basis); will money be reinvested in the business; put into reserves; used for some other purpose?

As per the rules:

Any profits of the Co-operative shall be applied as follows in such proportions and in such manner as may be decided by the Co-operative at the annual general meeting:

- (a) To a general reserve for the continuation and development of the Co-operative;
- (b) To paying dividends to Members, either equally or in accordance with some other equitable formula which recognises the relative contribution made by each Member to the business of the Co-operative;
- (c) To making payment for social, co-operative or community purposes within the community served by the Co-operative.

In order to satisfy ourselves that the society is a bona fide co-operative, we need to understand the society's relationships with other key stakeholders.

3.8 Please state any close links which any of the founding members or directors has, or intends to have, with any society, company or authority.

'Close links' includes any directorships or senior positions held by directors or founding members of the society in other organisations.

The founder members are directors of MORALITY.NETWORK LTD Company number 11720460 is a registered company that will handle the initial crowdfunding of the project through PayPal. No profits will be given to/or distributed through the LTD Co.
