In determining attendance at a meeting of the Board of Directors, it is immaterial whether any two or more Directors attending are in the same place as each other.
97. Questions arising at any meetings of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the status quo shall be maintained and the Board of Directors may choose to refer the matter to a general meeting of the Co-operative.
98. A written resolution, circulated to all Directors and signed by a simple majority (51%) of Directors, shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a Board meeting duly convened and held. A written resolution may consist of several identical Documents signed by one or more Directors.

Chairing Board Meetings

102. The chairperson shall facilitate meetings of the Board of Directors. If s/he is absent or unwilling to act at the time any meeting proceeds to business then the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be the chairperson for that meeting.

Declaration of Interest

103. A Director shall declare an interest in any contract or matter in which s/he has a personal, material or financial interest, whether directly or indirectly, and shall not vote in respect of such contract or matter, provided that nothing shall prevent a Director voting in respect of her/his terms and conditions of employment or any associated matter.

We need to be satisfied that the society is a bona fide co-operative society. Chapter 4 of our guidance provides more information about how we approach this. We generally consider something to be a bona fide co-operative where it is an autonomous association of persons united voluntarily to meet their common economic, social and cultural needs and aspirations through a jointly owned and democratically controlled enterprise.

3.4 Please describe the members' common economic, social and cultural needs and aspirations.

In answering this question, please make sure it is clear what needs and aspirations members have in common.

User Members are individuals who wish to provide financial support for each other.

3.5 How will the society's business meet those needs and aspirations?

The co-op will will pay a living wage to its Worker Members who will be involved in decisions made about the business of the co-op.

While the co-op will not be directly involved in providing financial services, it will provide an online platform to its User Members enabling them to form networks of trust to provide mutual financial support in a transparent and accountable way and who also will be involved in decisions made about the business of the co-op.

3.6 How will members democratically control the society?

For example, will the members elect a board at an annual general meeting; will all members collectively run the society.

The members elect a board at and attend annual general meetings.
